

ROB FALGIANO

PRESS: ALL STAR HEART

Listen to this

Extra! Extra!

This is one of our new features available only in the print edition of The Buffalo News.

Rob Falgiano Band

Members include:

Rob Falgiano, right,
Ray Hangen, Jonathan Hughes,
Mike Criscione, Dee Adams

Style: Folk, rock, pop, alternative, singer-songwriter

Next up: CD release party performance for "All Star Heart,"

Falgiano's new album, is Saturday at the Sportsmen's Tavern. The Rob Falgiano Band will perform beginning at 9:30 p.m. Dee Adams will open. Admission is free.

Why?: Falgiano has been a staple of the Buffalo independent songwriter scene since the early 1990s. Following the breakup of his last band, the Contortionists, he's been going it alone, performing his own songs accompanied by acoustic guitar. Falgiano is excited about his new performing ensemble, though. The songs on "All Star Heart" — painstakingly crafted over the last several years at Audio Magic Studios under the keen ear and watchful eye of producer/engineer Mike Rorick, and featuring guest performances by the likes of Mary Ramsey, Nelson and Eric Starr, Jonathan Hughes and Dee Adams — form his strongest, most finely detailed and compelling collection to date.

Check out: www.robfaigiano.com; download three free songs from "All Star Heart" via robfaigiano.websitemgmt.com/registration.asp; purchase the full album via iTunes.apple.com.

— Jeff Miers

"The songs on "All Star Heart" form his strongest, most finely detailed and compelling collection to date."

— Jeff Miers, The Buffalo News (Buffalo, NY)